Kiato is not just a vibrant seaside town; it is the "golden ratio" on the map of the Peloponnese. Due to its strategic location, it offers visitors the luxury of moving from the sea waves to the heart of a fir forest in no time.

If you use Kiato as your base, the following 10 destinations will turn your stay into an unforgettable experience — 5 inside the Municipality of Sikyona and 5 just outside it:

Inside the Municipality of Sikyona

These are inside the municipality — Kiato and its villages. No need to leave.

Ancient Sicyon & Vasiliko (10 minutes) Just a stone's throw from the centre, history meets breathtaking views. The Ancient Theatre of Sicyon, one of the largest in Greece, towers over the city, offering panoramic views of the Corinthian Gulf. Don't miss the Museum, housed in original Roman baths.

Kryoneri: The "Balcony" of the Municipality (20 minutes) A model village for culture and alternative tourism. Visit the Observatory for a glimpse at the stars and enjoy the cool breeze in the village square with its traditional taverns.

Lechova Monastery (25 minutes) Nestled on the slopes of Mount Titan, the Byzantine Lechova Monastery is a Mediterranean paradise of tranquillity. The natural landscape with plane trees and the spring with crystal-clear water will rejuvenate you.

Mythical Lake Stymphalia (40 minutes) Follow in the footsteps of Hercules at one of Greece's most important wetlands. The state-of-the-art Environment Museum overlooking the lake is an experience not to be missed.

Feneos & Lake Doxa (55 minutes) The "Swiss Alps of Corinthia" await you. The artificial Lake Doxa, with the chapel of Agios Fanourios at its centre, is one of the most photographed destinations in Greece, surrounded by dense forests.

Nearby escapes — outside the municipality

These are outside the Municipality of Sikyona, but close enough for a day trip with Kiato as your base.

Acrocorinth: The Imposing Castle (25 minutes) The "Guardian" of Corinthia. The castle of Acrocorinth offers a stunning journey through history (from antiquity to the Venetian era) and the best 360-degree view in the entire region.

Loutraki & Lake Heraion (30 minutes) Combine the cosmopolitan aura of Loutraki with the serenity of Lake Vouliagmeni. At the end of the route, the ancient Temple of Hera by the waves and the Heraion Lighthouse offer the most beautiful sunset in the area.

Ancient Nemea: On the Wine Roads (35 minutes) For lovers of the "good life," Nemea offers a combination of history (Ancient Stadium and Temple of Zeus) and wine tasting at world-renowned wineries, featuring the famous Agiorgitiko variety.

Trikala Korinthias: Alpine Beauty (40 minutes) The ultimate mountain destination. Divided into three districts, Trikala offers stone mansions, flowing waters, and excellent local cuisine, no matter what season you visit.

Mill Stream – Zacholi (45 minutes) A setting straight out of a fairy tale. In the village of Evrostina (Zacholi), you will find a stream with waterfalls, wooden bridges, and ducks—ideal for hiking and relaxing in nature.

Why Choose Kiato for Your Stay?

Because it is the only city that allows you to change scenery every single day. Morning in the mountains, noon at the lake, and evening for dinner and drinks by the waves of the Corinthian Gulf.
