Kiato Beach

Kiato Beach stretches along the town's seafront on the Corinthian Gulf. With pebbles both on the shore and in the water, clean sea and easy access, it is a favourite with locals and visitors alike. Parts of it are organised with facilities, while a string of tavernas, cafes and ouzeries line the front, serving food and cool drinks right by the water. It is an easygoing spot for a relaxed swim and a stroll along the seaside promenade, especially pleasant in the evening.
