The Market of Kiato: A Destination for Every Need

In the heart of Kiato, where the city's pulse beats strongest, lies one of the most vibrant and complete markets in the Peloponnese. The market of Kiato is not just a commercial street; it is a destination that combines modern variety with personalized service and the high quality of local products.

Variety That Surprises

Strolling through the city's central streets and pedestrian zones, visitors will find everything they need. From brand-name clothing and footwear stores following the latest fashion trends to specialised shops for home goods, technology, and gifts. Kiato’s market covers every need for both permanent residents and vacationers, offering solutions for every budget.

The "Corner" of Local Treasures

What truly sets our market apart is its traditional delis and local food shops. Here, the aroma of freshly baked bread and the famous Sultana grapes meets exquisite Corinthian wines, virgin olive oil, and traditional cheeses from the mountainous hinterland. It is the perfect spot to source pure products directly from their origin.

A Consumer-Friendly City

A major advantage of Kiato’s market is its accessibility. The city’s flat terrain makes shopping an enjoyable walk. You can explore the shops on foot or by bicycle, enjoying the organisation and cleanliness of the commercial streets.

Shopping and Leisure: The Perfect Combination

The shopping experience is completed with a stop at the dozens of cafes and restaurants nestled among the stores. After your shopping, you can relax with a coffee by the beach or a quick snack, making your outing a complete leisure experience.
